Employment status on the first day of class determines eligibility for exemption. SEARK College employees may not attend classes during their scheduled work hours unless approved annual leave is granted by their Department's Vice President.

Tuition exemption is based on the in-state tuition rate per credit hour. Required books and fees are not exemptible.

The last day to apply for admission is the last day to apply for tuition exemption.

A current tax return, marriage license, and birth certificate are required to prove eligibility for spouse and/or dependent.

A Request for Tuition Exemption form and documentation must be submitted to the Personnel Office prior to registration each semester. Students receiving the Employee/Spouse/Dependent tuition exemption must maintain a 2.0 GPA to keep the tuition exemption. Employee, spouse or dependent student may appeal the individual loss of exemption (in person) to the Vice President for Student Services who may refer the appeal to committee.
